Mr. Martin,

Central Health's press release contains false information and is deliberately misleading. First, Mr. Wallace was terminated. He did not voluntarily resign. Second, Mr. Wallace was never "required to participate in personalized one-on-one sexual harassment avoidance training." Mr. Wallace was asked if he would participate in such training and voluntarily agreed to do so. It is quite disingenuous to try to use something he agreed to do against him. Third, in 2018, Central Health determined that Mr. Wallace's actions did not create a hostile environment. Fourth, Central Health has yet to provide any evidence to support its defamatory allegations against Mr. Wallace that additional incidents occurred after the 2018 investigation cleared him.

In that respect, it is extremely important to note that when Central Health talks about the 2019 investigation, it very deliberately fails to mention what conclusion the investigation reached, if any. That carefully worded reference to the 2019 investigation is all the more suspicious because, as you know, Central Health has steadfastly refused to produce even a redacted version of that investigation.

We are confident that when all of the facts come to light, Central Health's true unlawful motivations for its actions against Mr. Wallace will become clear.

Sincerely,

Colin Walsh
