Section 2: Summary Information

2.1 Historical Background

The Travis Central Appraisal District was created under the 66th Texas State Legislature in 1979 under the provisions of Senate Bill 621 known as the Property Tax Code. The District is responsible for the appraisal of property subject to ad valorem taxation in Travis County, Texas. The District is governed by a board of nine directors serving two year terms, plus a tenth statutorily designated non-voting member who is the County Tax Assessor-Collector. Travis County appoints two board members, Austin ISD appoints two board members, City of Austin appoints two board members, and Austin ISD and City of Austin appoint one board member together. The remaining two board members are appointed by a vote of the eastern and western taxing entities within Travis County.

The District was formed in 1981 and formally began operations in 1982, pursuing its mission to provide accurate appraisal of all property in Travis County at one hundred percent of market value, equally and uniformly, in a professional, ethical, economical and courteous manner, working to ensure that each taxpayer pays only their fair share of the property tax burden. As stipulated under the Texas Property Tax Code, the District serves the citizens and taxpayers of Travis County and the taxing entities which lie within Travis County.

2.2 Project Description and Scope

The District is seeking a construction manager-at-risk that will be required to perform the services of general contractor for renovations on a District owned property located at 850 E. Anderson Lane, Austin, TX 78752. Specific services and fee schedules will be specified in the contract agreement which will be negotiated after selection.
