

We win:

This success proves all Austinites want to be heard at city hall

- All of Austin has won, thanks to the supporters of Prop 3
- All of Austin came together to make elections fairer
- Largest and most diverse coalition in Austin's history
 - All ethnic and racial groups
 - Environmentalists and builders
 - Democrats and Republicans
 - Austin Neighborhoods Council
 - League of Women Voters
 - Austin Police and Austin Firefighters
 - UT Student Government
 - NAACP and LULAC 7 and 12
 - Hispanic Chamber of Commerce
 - Austin AFL-CIO
 - Many more groups and individuals
- What happened tonight
 - Austin has geographic representation like every other US and Texas city of our size
 - 10% of the population will no longer have 50% of the Council members
 - The "gentlemen's agreement" is gone
 - Minority representatives will be elected by minorities
 - Austin joined the vanguard of governments which trust the people – not the politicians - to draw their election districts.
 - Austin has once again proven to be a very special community.

We thank the voters from all parts of Austin, each of whom will now be heard in city hall.
